Effective July 1, 2008, the law has changed in the Commonwealth of Virginia with respect to the production, dissemination and cost of Resale Disclosure Packets. The Purpose of this page is to provide any interested party with the information necessary to request and obtain these mandatory packets.

It is no longer required that a seller pay in advance for Resale Disclosures. Although the requesting party may choose to pay in advance, it cannot be required. The fees associated with the Resale Disclosure are now considered “transaction-based” fees. In other words, although the charge is incurred at the time the Resale Disclosure is ordered, it is not required to be collected until settlement of the transaction. If settlement does not occur within 90 days of the delivery of the disclosure packet, or funds are not collected at settlement and disbursed to the association, all fees, including those cost that would have otherwise been the responsibility of the purchaser or settlement agent, shall be assessed against the lot owner and shall be the personal obligation of the lot owner.

In general, the seller or their authorized agent must request the Resale Disclosure. Under the previous law, the packet was to be delivered to the seller. Under the new law, the packet is to be delivered in accordance with the written instructions of the Seller/or Seller’s Agent, which may include delivery to the purchaser.

The new law stipulates that the seller can request the Resale Disclosure in either hard copy or electronic form. If requested in electronic form, the seller may designate up to 2 additional recipients at no additional charge. Processing time allowed remains up to 14 days from the date of delivery unless a “rush” is requested, for which additional fees are levied. (See attached fee schedule)

In accordance with the Resale Disclosure Law changes with Commonwealth of Virginia I/We, as Seller, have agreed to pay the charges as hereby instructed:

- Postpone the payment of the fee until closing/settlement or for 90 days.
- Agree to pay the fee in advance at the time the package is delivered/or picked up.
